READ ROMANS 8:12-18

What are the implications, for the believer, of having the Spirit? What obligation is there for those who have the Spirit?

What is involved in putting to death the deeds of the body? Is this our attitude to the sin in our lives? What needs to change? How can we help one another?

List the amazing privileges that are ours when we have the Spirit.

How does this passage give assurance to the Christian who is struggling against sin?

How does this passage teach us to:

Encourage one another?

Warn one another?

Praise God?

What is Paul's perspective on the present, and on the future for Christians? What kind of suffering is Paul likely to have in mind, from this context?

FOR FURTHER EXPLORATION: READ 1 JOHN 3:1-3

Discuss how this relates to Romans 8:12-18.
