Read Romans 7:21-8:4.

The 'therefore' in verse 1 suggests that Paul has reached a conclusion. What is he concluding?

Verses 1 and 2 of Romans 8 tell us that we are not condemned because we have been set free. How have we been set free?

This series in Romans 8 will highlight two key aspects of the Christian life: assurance and hope. How does the phrase "Now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus" relate to assurance and hope?

What different things can we thank Jesus for in these verses?

For further exploration:
Read Hebrews 10:19-25.

Discuss how truths in this passage relate to Romans 8:1-4.
